President's Message

2019 marks the 102nd annual edition of the Panhandle South Plains Fair. The dates of this year's exposition will be September 20th-28th with our traditional preview night for the carnival midway and the non-profit food vendors on the 19th beginning at 6:00 pm. As President of the Board of this Association, let me be among the first to welcome you out.

As always, there are so many things to do and see during the fair, but this year we are excited to announce the renovations of our Livestock Complex. This complex includes all 5 barns as well as improvements to the Livestock Pavilion. The barns themselves were built in the late 1940s and early 1950s and the time had come in the fair's master plan to do some upgrades to the facilities. Structurally they were sound, but we did go in and paint the interior and exteriors, insulate the walls and ceilings, put on new roofs, upgrade the doors and windows, and even install fans. In order to keep up with the times, we upgraded to state of the art animal pens and cattle tie outs.

The Livestock Pavilion, home of many rodeos and dirt arena events over the years since it was constructed in 1974, has been upgraded as well with a new roof, insulated walls and ceilings, fans, new dirt and all new state of the art rodeo equipment. We have added horse stalls along the outside of the building as well.

I invite you out to see these renovations but also the traditional roots of the fair including the Livestock Competitions, the Women's Building Exhibits, Crops Exhibits, Ag Mechanic displays, Creative Arts displays and the Children's Barnyard Building.

I would be remiss if I didn't mention the wonderful "fair food" that you can only get once a year. Come out and support your local non-profit organizations that serve up this wonderful food. We will also have over 200 commercial vendors selling a variety of goods and services.

Last but not least, come out and enjoy all of the entertainment the fair has to offer. Reithoffer Shows will be returning again this year as the carnival midway provider. The look and feel of the midway has definitely been upgraded since they have been here.

This year's free entertainment offerings are Hypnotist Ron Diamond, Rock it the Robot, Kachunga and the Alligator, Matt's Family Jam, Moto Maniacs, Stilt Circus, The Chipper Experience, along with Wolves of the World, an all-new act never before seen at the fair. The Coliseum acts will again be a variety of music genres and will continue to be free shows.

Please make plans to come to the fair this year and continue supporting this one of a kind event designed for and made possible by the great residents of Lubbock and the surrounding areas.

Sincerely,

Nicky Anderson
